

Psychology Journey

Where can Psychology take you?

A Level Exams

Revise revise revise!

Who is Piaget?

Cognitive development

Do we develop in stages?

What causes criminality?

Forensic

How should we treat offenders?

Revision for mock exam Year 13

How can you use a token economy?

Schizophrenia

What causes schizophrenia? How can it be treated?

How can theories be used to benefit or harm society?

Issues and Debates

Is our behaviour due to nature or nurture?

Revise revise revise!

What is OCD?

How do we diagnose mental health disorders?

What are ethical and practical issues in research?

Psychopathology

Research methods top ups

Revision for mock exam Year 12

Start Year 13 topics

KS5 13

What is a peer review?

What is the cerebellum?

Inferential statistics

Biopsychology

What is split brain research?

Attachment

What is the role of the father?

How can we conduct observations?

Why do we copy other people?

Are eyewitnesses and jurors making accurate decisions?

Approaches

Who was Harlow's monkey?

Do we have free will?

Who was Freud?

Social influence

Why do some people disobey?

Memory

Why do we recall things differently?

How are memories formed and stored?

KS5 12

Bridging week Taster sessions

How do antidepressants work?

Depression

What causes unipolar depression?

Social influence

Why do bystanders not help in emergencies?

Brain and neuro

How do neurons fire?

Which part of the brain is involved in aggression?

Revise revise revise!

Revision for Year 11 mock

GCSE Exams

KS4 11

Addiction

Can peers affect addiction?

Revise revise revise!

Revision Year 10 mock exam

Language and thought

How do bees communicate?

What are ethics?

How can our mindset affect our learning?

Perception

What is body language?

What is a visual illusion?

Does motivation affect perception?

KS4 10

Revise revise revise!

Revision Year 9 mock exam

What causes addiction?

How do self help groups work?

What is psychology not?

What is a psychologist?

What is amnesia?

What are variables?

What are ethics?

How can our mindset affect our learning?

How do we conduct interviews and experiments?

Introduction to Psychology

Memory

What causes us to forget?

What is a model of memory?

How do you do an experiment?

How do our brains develop in the womb?

Development

How do children develop cognitive skills?

How do you do an observation?

Who was Genie?

Research methods 2

KS4 9

GCSE Options Evening

What are the GCSE course requirements?

What are the main units studied in GCSE Psychology?

What is Psychology?

What is mental wellbeing? What are mental health disorders?

What is a psychology experiment like?

Taster session: Year 8 Psychology

What do our brains look like?

What do you need to do to build resilience

Y7 PSHE and tutor programme and science

What makes a criminal?

What is mental health?

KS3 7